The Department of Agriculture has evidence that on or about May 24, 2010 - September 21, 2010 - December 17, 2010 you or your organization committed the following violation of Federal Regulations:

9 CFR, SECTION

Failure to

2.40 (b)(3)

- Establish and maintain programs of adequate veterinary care to include daily observations and frequent communication with the attending veterinarian to convey information on problems of animal health, behavior, and well-being.

(Dog # 12 has severe tartar on the upper incisors, irritation on the gums, and the teeth appear to be loose.

*Dog # 103 has matted hair around the eyes and face.

*Dog # 35 has grade 2 to grade 3 out of 4 dental calculus.)

2.126 (b)

- Have a responsible adult available to accompany APHIS officials during the inspection process, and a room, table or other facilities for examination of records and inspection of property or animals for use by APHIS officials if necessary.

(On September 21, 2010, a responsible adult was not available to accompany a USDA official on inspection.)

3.1 (e)

- Store supplies of food and bedding in a manner that protects supplies from spoilage, contamination and vermin infestation.

(Open bags of dog food were not stored in leak proof containers.)

3.11 (c)

- Keep premises where housing facilities are located, including buildings and surrounding grounds clean and in good repair to protect the animals from injury, facilitate husbandry practices, reduce or eliminate breeding and living areas for rodents and other pests and vermin.

(There were weeds growing around the Raber kennel that made it difficult to check the drainage systems and monitor for pests.)

Titles 7 & 9 Code of Federal Regulations were promulgated to help prevent the spread of animal and plant pests and diseases and assure the humane treatment of animals. Since violations of the regulations can have serious and costly impact detrimental to the public interest, you are warned of this violation. Any further violation of these regulations may result in the assessment of a civil penalty or criminal prosecution. If you have any questions concerning this warning or violation, please contact the listed APHIS Official.
