9 CFR, SECTION

Failure to

3.81

- Develop, document and follow an appropriate plan for environment enhancement adequate to promote psychological well-being of nonhuman primates. The plan must be in accordance with the currently accepted professional standards as cited in appropriate professional journals or reference guides, and as directed by the attending veterinarian. This plan must be made available to APHIS upon request... The plan, at a minimum, must address each of the following: (a) Social grouping (b) Environmental enrichment (c) Special considerations (d) Restraint devices (e) Exemptions.

(There is not a documented environmental enhancement plan to promote psychological well-being for the 2 ring-tailed lemurs and 1 capuchin.)

3.133

- House animals in a primary enclosure with other compatible animals. Animals shall not be housed near animals that interfere with their health or cause them discomfort.

(An alpaca was severely injured, and later euthanized, by a newly acquired camel in a enclosure they shared.)

Titles 7 & 9 Code of Federal Regulations were promulgated to help prevent the spread of animal and plant pests and diseases and assure the humane treatment of animals. Since violations of the regulations can have serious and costly impact detrimental to the public interest, you are warned of this violation. Any further violation of these regulations may result in the assessment of a civil penalty or criminal prosecution. If you have any questions concerning this warning or violation, please contact the listed APHIS Official.
