The U.S. Department of Agriculture has evidence that on or about June 16, 2011 and October 14, 2011, you or your organization committed the following violation(s) of Federal Regulations 9 CFR, Section:

2.131(d)(2) Handling of Animals... repeated failure to have a responsible, knowledgeable, and readily identifiable employee or attendant present at all times during periods of public contact.

3.50(a) Facilities, General... repeated failure to build and/or to maintain housing facility for rabbits structurally sound, in good repair, to protect the animals from injury, to contain the animals.

The Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service (APHIS) created federal regulations to ensure the welfare of animals and help prevent the spread of animal and plant pests and diseases. Since violations of the regulations can have serious and costly impacts that are detrimental to the public interest, APHIS is providing you with an Official Warning for the violation(s) described above. Any further violation of these federal regulations may result in the assessment of a civil penalty, criminal prosecution, or other sanctions. If you have any questions concerning this Official Warning or violation(s), please contact the APHIS official listed in the box below.
