The Department of Agriculture has evidence that on or about June 3, 2010 you or your organization committed the following violation of Federal Regulations:

9 CFR, SECTION

Failure to

2.40(b)(3)

- Establish and maintain programs of adequate veterinary care that includes daily observation of all animals to assess their health and well-being. A mechanism of direct and frequent communication is required so that timely and accurate information on animal health, behavior, and well-being is conveyed to the attending veterinarian.

(A female hedgehog died while having a difficult time with birth. There was no documentation as to who was watching her, if the vet was called, or what other things were done for her.)

Titles 7 & 9 Code of Federal Regulations were promulgated to help prevent the spread of animal and plant pests and diseases and assure the humane treatment of animals. Since violations of the regulations can have serious and costly impact detrimental to the public interest, you are warned of this violation. Any further violation of these regulations may result in the assessment of a civil penalty or criminal prosecution. If you have any questions concerning this warning or violation, please contact the listed APHIS Official.
