The Department of Agriculture has evidence that on or about September 10, 2010 - May 25, 2008 - January 9, 2007 you or your organization committed the following violation of Federal Regulations:

9 CFR, SECTION

Failure to

3.13(c)

- Deny a dog or cat for transport in commerce unless the consignor certifies in writing to the carrier or intermediate handler that the dog or cat was offered food and water during the 4 hours before delivery.

(On January 9, 2007 there was no record of time animals were offered food and water.)

3.13(d)

- Carriers and intermediate handlers must not accept a dog or cat for transport if the primary enclosure is obviously defective or damaged and cannot reasonably be expected to safely and comfortably contain the dog or cat without causing suffering or injury.

(On May 25, 2008 a puppy scraped his nose and injured his eye after the container it was in fell apart during loading.)

3.14(a)(1)

- Construct a primary enclosure to contain a dog or cat such as a compartment, transport cage, carton, or crate. Primary enclosures used to transport dogs and cats must be constructed so that: The primary enclosure is strong enough to contain the dogs and cats securely and comfortably and to withstand the normal rigors of transportation.

(On July 13, 2010 a cat escaped its kennel during loading and never found.

On May 25, 2008 kennel carrying a one year old pup fell apart when loading personnel picked up the container.

On January 9, 2007 animals were accepted for transport in an inadequate collapsible container.)

3.16(c)

- Have securely attached inside the primary enclosure food and water receptacles so the receptacles can be filled from outside the enclosure without opening the door.

(On January 9, 2007 kennel did not have food and water receptacles.)

Titles 7 & 9 Code of Federal Regulations were promulgated to help prevent the spread of animal and plant pests and diseases and assure the humane treatment of animals. Since violations of the regulations can have serious and costly impact detrimental to the public interest, you are warned of this violation. Any further violation of these regulations may result in the assessment of a civil penalty or criminal prosecution. If you have any questions concerning this warning or violation, please contact the listed APHIS Official.
