The Department of Agriculture has evidence that on or about September 14, 2010 you or your organization committed the following violation of Federal Regulations:

9 CFR, SECTION

Failure to

3.14(a)(1)

- Construct a primary enclosure to contain a dog or cat such as a compartment, transport cage, carton, or crate. Primary enclosures used to transport dogs and cats must be constructed so that: The primary enclosure is strong enough to contain the dogs and cats securely and comfortably and to withstand the normal rigors of transportation.

(On September 7, 2010, British airways accepted a canine for transport at JFK airport. During loading the dogs container fell off the conveyor belt causing the container to open and the dog escaped.)

Titles 7 & 9 Code of Federal Regulations were promulgated to help prevent the spread of animal and plant pests and diseases and assure the humane treatment of animals. Since violations of the regulations can have serious and costly impact detrimental to the public interest, you are warned of this violation. Any further violation of these regulations may result in the assessment of a civil penalty or criminal prosecution. If you have any questions concerning this warning or violation, please contact the listed APHIS Official.
